india's spirit experience since 1754

Jaisalmer Craft Gin and Stranger & Sons Gin stand out from other gins worldwide due to their unique distillation techniques and infusion of Unique Indian botanicals. Jaisalmer Craft Gin incorporates hand-picked botanicals from Rajasthan such as Vetiver and Green tea leaves from Darjeeling, lending it a distinct flavor profile. Meanwhile, Stranger & Sons Gin embraces a blend of Indian spices and herbs such as Nutmeg, Mace, Gondhoraj Lime, Nagpur Orange and Indian Sweet limes, capturing the essence of India's vibrant culture. These gins offer a taste that showcases the rich heritage of the Indian subcontinent, setting them apart from conventional gins and providing an extraordinary drinking experience for enthusiasts seeking something truly special.

The topography and water of India lend distinctiveness to Godawan-Series 01 Single Malt, Rampur Double Cask Single Malt, and Paul John Bold Single Malt. India's varying climates lead to rapid aging, resulting in bolder flavors and complexities. Abundant pure water sources enhance the production process. The use of indigenous barley and grains, coupled with unique distillation methods, sets them apart from whiskies worldwide. These Indian single malts boast a rich, unparalleled character that reflects the nation's diverse landscapes, making them stand out in the global whisky arena.
